All equipment shall be invoiced to Buyer at the applicable address specified in the purchase order.

Delay in Shipment or Installation

All delivery dates and installation dates (if Seller assumed installation responsibility in this quotation) are approximate only. Cancellation and Modification

This Proposal may not be canceled, modified, or delivery delayed except with the Seller's written consent and upon terms which indemnify the Seller against any or all losses including a reasonable profit.

Taxes

Any sales, use, excise or other taxes payable in respect of the sale or installation of the equipment will be paid by the Buyer.

Warranty

For equipment and material manufactured by the Seller (except for parts sold separately, on which no warranty is given by the Seller), the Seller warrants such equipment for a period of 12 months from date of shipment under normal use and service against improper performance caused by defective material or workmanship.
